

I my school because...

When I first came here I was so afraid but when I met Oliver I wasn't afraid and we became freinds quickly. Third grade helped me learn multiplication, division, animal diorama, literacy center, ELA, and I love free dress friday. I love math most of all, you can learn fractions, and number lines. We did an experiment too. We also laugh together. What I love mostly of all is learning about animals!

Azriel