

I my school because...

Teachers care about students.

I also love my school because they help me learn different things everyday, they encourage us to make good choices.

In addition we have free dress day every Friday. The principal is very kind and respects our religions. We learn different cultures. Mr. Griffin has creeds that help us be better people. This is why I love my school, and this is why I chose it for national school choice week.

By:
Paloma

NATIONAL

SchoolChoice

WEEK

